Description

Designed for demanding climbers, these belay and abseil gloves combine strength, precision and comfort. Their hybrid design blends the strength of a work glove with the finesse of a technical glove, offering optimum protection without compromising dexterity.

Key features:

- Ergonomic cut: offers excellent touch sensitivity while ensuring a comfortable, compression-free fit.
- High-quality natural leather: ensures an ideal balance between durability and precision of movement.
- Double layer of leather on high use areas (palm, fingertips, in-between) for increased abrasion resistance.
- Breathable stretch nylon back: promotes ventilation and increases comfort, even during prolonged use.
- Neoprene cuffs with Velcro fastening: secure fit and quick adjustment.
- Practical attachment hole for attaching the gloves to the harness with a carabiner.

Certifications:

- CE EN 21420 (protective gloves - general requirements)
- CE EN 388 (3123 - abrasion, cut, tear and puncture resistance)
- UKCA
- EAC
