Adjustable PETZL CORAX harness for indoor and rock climbing. An easy-to-use piece of equipment that's extremely comfortable and adaptable to all body shapes.

Description

If you're a fan of climbing with maximum comfort, it's important to opt for fully adjustable equipment. PETZL's CORAX harness allows you to climb indoors or on crags with ease, whatever your morphology.

- Comfortable support thanks to thick waistband and padded thigh straps
- DOUBLEBACK buckles on the waistband for easy harness centering
- Adjustable thigh straps to accommodate all body shapes
- FRAME technology to redistribute weight from top to bottom
- Two rigid gear loops at the front and two softer ones at the back
- An accessory ring behind the harness
- Compatible with CARITOOL EVO tool holders

The plus? The CORAX harness is eco-designed with recycled polyester (waistband and thighbands). Available in three colors: gray/black, blue or red/black.
