Versatile PETZL SELENA VIOLET climbing harness for women. Ideal safety equipment for indoor, crag and big-pitch climbing. Available in four sizes.

Description

Take on the summits! With equipment specially designed for adventurous women: the SELENA VIOLET climbing harness from PETZL. A safety device designed to adapt to women's morphologies, with a very comfortable fit and great freedom of movement.

- A wide, curved, padded waistband with a slimmer front.
- Optimal waist positioning thanks to the right thigh-to-waist distance
- A thigh-to-waist ratio compatible with women's morphology
- ENDOFRAME technology for excellent weight distribution in the waistband and thighs
- Perfect fit thanks to elasticized thighs
- Freedom of movement thanks to flexible connecting straps
- Two rigid gear loops at the front, two softer ones at the back, and an accessory ring also located behind the harness
